Volunteer Center of Riverside County

951-686-4402/ www.vcrivco.org

Our mission is to Link people in need with those who can help. Each year the VCRC assists men, women and children in need. Our services are divided among eight different programs: a Volunteer Connection program, promoting volunteerism by recruiting, training and placing volunteers, a HELPLine Crisis & Suicide Intervention program, providing trained counseling 24 hours/7 days a week, a 211 Riverside County program, connecting people to appropriate community resources and intervening in problematic situations before the crisis stage, a Transportation Access Program (TAP), distributing bus tickets through other agencies for the truly needy, disabled and seniors, a Shared Housing multigenerational program, connecting home seekers with home providers in a shared arrangement, a Senior Ombudsman Services (SOS) program, deterring elder abuse through community education and the investigation of senior's problems in long-term care facilities and an Alternative Sentencing Program (ASP) One-Stop program providing court ordered restitution and diversion services for clients.

The Resource Center for Nonprofit Management

951-686-4402/ www.nonprofitresource.org

The Resource Center for Nonprofit Management (RCNM), a program of Volunteer Center of Riverside County, was founded in 1998 by a group of regional nonprofits whose representatives felt a need to build the capacity of all nonprofit organizations in Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

Our mission is to provide leadership and professional development resources that strengthen the nonprofit sector. The Resource Center for Nonprofit Management (RCNM) provides management training workshops and networking mixers at convenient times and locations throughout Riverside County. Presenters include executive managers of area nonprofits and experienced trainers and consultants from business and academia.

Arrowhead United Way
