Community Services Planning Council

916-447-7063 / www.communitycouncil.org

The Community Services Planning Council is a catalyst for community change, providing health and human services information for the public, engaging people in collaborative planning, conducting policy analysis on health and social issues, developing innovative programs, building coalitions to effectively respond to emerging community needs, and offering training and technical assistance in community planning, mobilizing and program development so people can improve their communities.

Hands On Sacramento

916-447-7063 / www.handsonsacto.org

Hands On Sacramento was started in 1998 by the Community Services Planning Council (CSPC) in response to the community's need for a full-service volunteer action center. Founding volunteers wanted to create social change through volunteerism and education, believing that each person's involvement will make a real difference in our community.

Nonprofit Resource Center

916-285-1840 / www.nprcenter.org

Our mission is to enhance the resources and improve the management of nonprofit organizations, primarily within California's northern Central Valley and Sierra Nevada regions. We invite you to visit here often to find resources that will help your nonprofit grow stronger and be more successful -- from information on training opportunities, consultation and technical assistance, to build connections with your peers.
