

Surviving and Thriving During Tough Times Conference
Inland Empire – April 15, 2009
Agenda

7:30-8:30 Registration

8:30-9:05 Opening Session

Karen Baker

Secretary of Service and Volunteering, CaliforniaVolunteers

Welcome and Acknowledgements

Welcome from Bank of America

Al Arguello

Inland Empire Market President

Agenda Overview

Karen Baker

Data to Inform Your Strategy – Local Perspectives

Karen Baker

9:05-10:45 Leveraging the Full Spectrum of Volunteers

Designing a Purposeful Strategy for Managing Human Capital

Karen Baker

Secretary of Service and Volunteering, CaliforniaVolunteers

BREAK

Lindsay Firestone

Manager of Strategic Partnerships, Taproot Foundation

Questions and Answers

10:45-11:00 BREAK

11:00-12:30 Financial and Operational Session

Presented by Bank of America

Knowing Your Donor and Strategic Implications for Today

Mike Rea
Senior Vice President, Western Philanthropic Executive

Financial and Operational Tactics to Survive and Thrive in Tough Times

Ellen Sloan
Director, Philanthropic Management

Questions and Answers

12:30-12:45 Break / Attendees Pick Up Lunches

12:45-1:30 Roundtable Discussions

Speakers from earlier sessions and local nonprofit leaders will lead discussions on a variety of topics over lunch

1:30-2:00 State and Federal Perspectives – The Road Ahead

Karen Baker
Secretary of Service and Volunteering, CaliforniaVolunteers

Thank you for attending today! CaliforniaVolunteers and all our conference partners hope you found value in this conference.*

Special Thanks to Bank of America, the Taproot Foundation, Inland Empire United Way, Hands On Inland Empire, Volunteer Center of Riverside County, The Resource Center for Nonprofit Management, Arrowhead United Way, 2-1-1, United Way of Coachella Valley, United Way of Inland Valleys, the Goldy S. Lewis Community Center, and many others who helped bring this conference to your community.*